

BA-644

1873-74

McDonogh Station

8313 McDonogh Road (south side)

west side of Western Maryland Railroad

Pikesville

McDonogh Station is a small board-and-batten railroad station erected at the expense of McDonogh School. Built in the Gothic Cottage style, it measures 45 x 39 feet. The building was moved c. 1905-6 in the realignment of a right-of-way. It is currently used as a residence.